

PAT DOTY DANIEL, CPA

Columbus

Pat Daniel is CEO of P&J Beverage Corp., a privately owned holding company for retail liquor outlets in Columbus, Georgia, and is also a member of the Board of Directors of the Georgia Alcohol Dealers Association. Pat is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and a former member of that organization's Committee of CPAs in Industry. A longstanding member of the Georgia Society of CPAs, she previously held the position of Chairperson for the Committee of CPAs in Industry, Government and Education with that organization. Pat is a member of the Board of Directors of the Columbus Symphony Orchestra, a member of the North Columbus Rotary Club, the Columbus Club Litteraire, the Master's Circle of the Columbus Museum, and St. Thomas Episcopal Church. Pat currently writes a column for Columbus and the Valley Magazine about her passion for fine wines, wine regions, and related topics. Pat was born and raised in Savannah, Georgia, the daughter of a World War II veteran, Irving W. Doty, Jr., a man with a lifelong interest in genealogy and the family history in South Carolina and Georgia. Continuing in that tradition, she is a member of the Georgia Historical Society, where she recently donated Mr. Doty's library and genealogical research.
